

TWO MOUNTAIN WINERY

Red Wines

2005 Lemberger

$16

Inviting flavors of pepper, fig and boysenberry mesmerize you nose while your palate is entertained with pepper, white pepper and raspberry with the slightest hints of vanilla framing this delightful wine.

Hidden Horse V Red Table Wine – New Release

Initially this wine screams of blackberry and fresh ripe Bing Cherries making you think of all of your favorite summer fruits and berries. As one delves deeper into this surprising gem, hints of rose petal, eucalyptus, clove, cocoa, tar and a nice edge of oak awaken your senses to a point of excitement. A bright color, brilliant nose and lingering almost chunk after taste makes this Hidden Horse a must have.

2005 Merlot - New Release

$22

Opening with hints of currant, Bing cherry, Cigar Box Tobacco, and candied berry this wine then turns into mouth-watering flavors of black licorice, sweet/ripe blackberry, over-ripe plum, and toffee while maintaining a long lasting soft tannin finish.

*Excellent! - Wine Press Northwest, Fall 2007
Bronze-Washington State Wine Competition, 2008*

2004 Syrah

$22

Aromas of dark cherry, ripe blackberries and plum dominate the nose of this splendid Syrah. The palate opens with the peppery varietal characteristic we have all come to know and love, followed by dark cherry, anise, tobacco and the slightest insinuation of French oak ending with the most delicious velvety, chewy tannin. Northwest Syrah at its finest.

Outstanding!!- Wine Press Northwest, Spring 2008

2004 Cabernet Sauvignon

$25

This beautifully balanced Cabernet opens with stunning aromas of blackberry, dark cherry, allspice and toasty French oak. With flavors of blackberry, plum, dark Bing cherry, and tobacco framed by the French oak and soft velvety tannins this Cabernet is a pleasure now or cellared.
